

Organization Design is a key source of competitive advantage.

The Organization Design Forum is seeking sponsorship support of companies who are interested in demonstrating their commitment to organization design by providing designated or undesignated contributions.

Gold Level $10,000

Silver Level $ 5,000

Bronze Level $ 2,500

Foundation Sponsor
$2,000 — $500

The Organization Design Forum (ODF) is an international professional association for the field of organization design, a systematic approach to configuring and aligning structures, processes, leadership, culture, people practices, and metrics to enable organizations to achieve their mission and strategy. ODF builds and advocates the community, practice, and leadership of the field of Organization Design through members' expertise, partnerships, and education.

As a sponsor of ODF through its premier annual conference, webinar series, and other opportunities, you will reach a highly targeted and powerful group of professionals whose focus is on organization design. The ODF community ranges from internal and external consultants, organizational leaders, and thought leaders and educators from industry, government, and non-profits.

Sponsorship offers you brand visibility and marketing among talented leaders and practitioners in the field of organization design, through a package that includes:

- Logo and brand placement on our website
- Logo and brand placement on signage displayed throughout the annual conference
- Complimentary conference registrations
- Logo and brand placement in conjunction with our webinar series
