

Kathleen Ardu

Kathleen has more than 20 years of consulting experience providing large scale, highly-complex organizational development solutions for both private and public sector organizations. Her consulting expertise includes mergers and acquisitions, organization design, strategic workforce planning, talent management and change integration. Kathleen's client base includes fortune 50 global and multinational companies in the banking, aerospace, retail, and manufacturing industries. She has coached and facilitated executives in some of the world's largest and most respected organizations.