

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGES

As a non-profit 501(c)3, Organization Design Forum is seeking sponsorship support of companies who are interested in demonstrating their commitment to organization design by providing designated or undesignated contributions.

As a sponsor of ODF through its premier annual conference and practitioner development virtual offerings, you will reach a highly targeted and powerful group of professionals whose focus is on organization design. The ODF community ranges from internal and external consultants, organizational leaders, and thought leaders and educators from industry, government, and non-profits.
