

Luann Philyaw

LuAnn brings more than 25 years of experience in business strategy, mergers & acquisitions, organization restructuring and human capital with top consulting firms such as Deloitte, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Booz Allen & Hamilton and Willis Towers Watson. Similar to Kathleen, her client base included fortune 50 companies across the healthcare, oil & gas, retail, and manufacturing industries as well as federal sector clients. LuAnn was awarded a Congressional Medal of Honor from the Secretary of Transportation, Norman Mineta. Serving as the Executive Workforce Transition Leader, she played a pivotal role in standing up the Transportation Security Administration and was accountable for the recruiting, hiring, training and deployment of over 60,000 screeners and Federal Security Directors at 429 airports during a three month timeframe after the 9-11 attacks.